New Sunday service pattern

Our live streaming from church via Zoom is up and running, so our 10.30am service will now take place in church and be live streamed over Zoom. You are welcome to come to church for this service or to watch from home as you wish. Government regulations make it compulsory to wear a face covering for church services indoors, unless you are exempt.

There will also be a 8.00am Holy Communion (BCP) service once a month, starting this Sunday. Family Praise will continue as normal at 9.30am. On the first Sunday we will hold a Family Communion at 10.00am (in church and on Zoom).

Can you help?

We need volunteers to help with both our 9.30 and 10.30 services. Can you help once or twice a month to set up for 9.30 Family Praise or put away afterwards, or to help with Zoom operating for our 10.30 service? If so please get in touch with Charles or one of the Wardens.

Open Church —

Please contact Helen if you can help during October thank you.

Annual Meeting

Our postponed APCM will now take place on Thursday 8th October at 7.30pm – put the date in you diary and watch out for further details

Harvest Festival

We will celebrate Harvest as usual on Sunday 4th October with a family communion in church at 10am, which will be livestreamed on zoom for those who prefer to join in from home.

Fancy a career in TV?

We can't offer that, but we do need volunteers to operate our camera and zoom as we start to livestream services in the near future. Please contact Charles or Helen if you are interested. Full training given.
