

Today's Bible reading

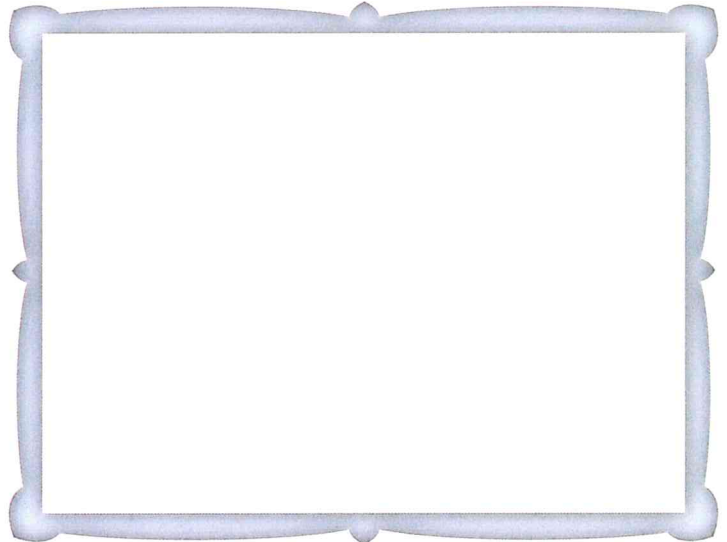

Matthew 25.14-30

Jesus tells a story of a man who leaves his slaves a certain amount of money and goes away on a journey. On his return, the master is angry at the slave who has done nothing with the money.

Activity 1

God gives gifts and talents for us to use and improve. What are you good at? How can you get better? Draw yourself using your talent.

Activity 2

Draw an arrow to match up the people with the things they need put their trust in.

- | | | | |
|--|--------------|------------|--|
| | rock climber | God | |
| | skydiver | road signs | |
| | car driver | parachute | |
| | you | ropes | |

PRAYER

Thank you, God, for all the things you have given me.
Help me to be trustworthy and make the most of all you have given me.
Amen.

Live your faith!

Try to commit to praying for five people this week, do two good things this week and talk to one person you don't usually talk to.

Check it out

Over the Hedge 🐿️. There are lots of examples of risk taking and trust in this film.