

Prayers 30th May

O God you search us and know us .
All our thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When we walk or lie down you are before us
Ever the maker and keeper of our days

Almighty God and Holy Spirit on this Trinity Sunday Grant to all Christians everywhere a new understanding of your kingdom and a new knowledge of your power, a fresh vision of your glory and so awaken us to the reality of your presence that we may be caught up in your purposes and serve you with a burning spirit and a quiet mind through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Lord we bring before you today all those who are finding it difficult to cope with this dreadful virus COVID 19. We pray for those who have the virus, for their loved ones and for those who have lost their loved ones.

We pray for those who are lonely and afraid in this difficult time. Help them to feel your presence and so be comforted.

Lord in your mercy - Hear our prayer.

We pray for all the medical staff and all who work in any capacity to help us get through this dreadful time.

We thank you Lord that there has been a significant success in finding a vaccine and pray that all the scientists hard work may come to fruition in the very near future.

Lord in your mercy - Hear our prayer.

Lord God may your kingdom of love and peace be established in this world and grow. We pray for both the influential and the ignored both the popular and the disliked both the ambitious and the vulnerable. Teach us all your ways and values.

Lord in your mercy - Hear our prayer.

Lord we thank you for this and our church, for Charles and Gillian and for all who work here in any capacity.

Help us to love and care for one another and thank you for all the technicalities of this age that make life a little easier.
